President's Message

Good meeting this week. We had a high profile speaker and by my count 17 guests (Some of the guests were there to accept sponsorship checks). If you hosted one of the guests please follow-up and extend the invitation to join our club. If your guest is not ready to commit, ask them to come to our Membership dinner on January 26th. We would like to have some prospects at that meeting that are ready to commit that night. This will build momentum for the other guests in attendance.

The Carolina Football Parking fund-raiser continues this Saturday from 10 am to 1 p.m. Please let Reggie or me know if you would like to participate and share in the fun.

Speakers & Events

November
 17 Congressman Jim Clyburn & Evening Board Meeting

Our Speaker Committee chaired by Todd Lewis and assisted by Greg Moody is finding us timely, interesting speakers. Lee Bandy told us at a meeting in October to get your political speakers now while there is interest in our first in the nation Democratic presidential primary. He reminded us that after that, South Carolina will be automatically assumed to be a Bush state and none of the candidates will spend any additional time in the state.

The Board will meet next week and consider sponsorship requests. Also, we are expecting another good turnout from members and guests for next week's program with Congressman Clyburn.

Quite A Crowd for Ms. Tenenbaum!

Business Meeting

- Mack Goodwin ~ gave the Invocation and Pledge of Allegiance.
- Coaches Corner~

Sterling Anderson actually went to Arkansas for the game and it was something he looked forward to~until the got there. The 48 to 6 pounding sounded worse than it was. (yea, right). Sterling quoted Lou as saying, "The Chicken Curse works best when you don't block or tackle." We host The University of Florida here this Saturday and we are favored to lose, but are looking forward to an upset.

Neal Sutker observed that during the recent upset victory over Florida State that "a whole- lotta orange was flying around". Clemson pulled out all the stops, and with a different defense, made Florida State one-dimensional. This win makes The Tigers 6-4 and was the biggest win since...(notes garbled)

- Membership Roster~Have you made a change over the last year or so? New job, new phone, new e-mail, new kids?? Tell us. Dan Felker has been nice enough to provide update forms. Even if your information has not changed, please let Dan know. (dfelker@btitelecom.net). This will be the last Bulletin reminder.

- Sponsorships~

$11,000 ~Nurturing Center: $2,000 ~Children Unlimited: $12,000 ~Prevent Teen Pregnancy

Guest Speaker~ Ms. Inez Tenenbaum, State Superintendent of Education reminded us that the quality of our children's future and the State's future are the same, i.e. (education and economic development run hand-in-hand.) If improvement in test scores is an indication of success, we are climbing rapidly in the rankings, in spite of budget cuts back to 1997 levels. An impressive partnership exists with the business community and over one million hours of volunteer service have been logged in. Ms. Tenenbaum applauded the positive difference our Club makes to the community on a daily basis.
