Council

MS Society Bar-B-Q on April

2 and 3 at Sam's Club parking lot on Forest Drive. Our Sertoman of the Year, Chris Weston can provide you with tickets to sell and he is seeking some volunteers to assist in distributing the barbecue. He can be reached at 606-9632.

3 Rivers Music Festival on April 16 – 18. The Columbia Sertoma Club will staff a gateway and staff a beverage stand. Thank you to the 17 members that have already volunteered, most for multiple shifts. We will share this project with the Cayce Jaycees, with each club providing approximately 45 four-hour shifts. Contact project chairman Todd Lewis at 240-1213 for information on shifts.

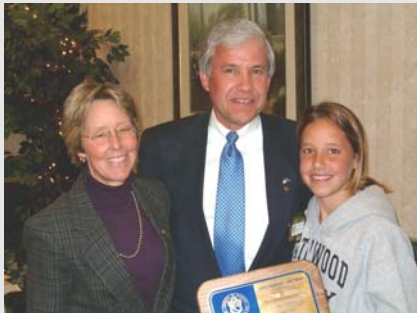

Home Works one-day blitz on April 24. Club members are invited to work with SCE&G's facility management department, the group where we park cars at USC football games. Mark will coordinate volunteers from our club to work

Membership Application Final Posting

JEFFREY R. (JEFF) BENNETT has submitted his application for membership. He is single and is sponsored by Todd Lewis. He is joining this Club due to interest in working the State Fair and because of an interest in Carolina Children's Home. Please address any comments to a Sertoma officer or Board member.

Business Meeting

- Keith Jones gave the Invocation & Pledge of Allegiance.
- Wayne Deschamps underwent surgery Monday.

C. Tucker Weston Sertoman of the Year

In recognition of exemplary Service to Mankind through Sertoma and leadership in the community, Chris Weston is this years recipient, a fitting tribute to both son and father.

Service To Mankind Award

For a lifetime of leadership in volunteerism~personally making a difference to those in need in the community, our Club is proud to recognize William "Bill" Reamer as this year's Service to Mankind recipient.

Carolina Children's Home ~ In-Kind Contributions Accepted

The Home is in need of office supplies, refurbished computers, filing cabinets, gift certificates for Kid's birthdays, school supplies and used furniture for CCH graduates as they leave and start their own households. Think of vendors you know that can donate these items. The retail value is counted toward our fundraising goal.
