President's Message

Our Monday meeting included a good speech by Ken Wingate. He was Chair of a committee studying state government that made recommendations on management, accountability, and performance, the MAP report. I liked his background as a CPA and attorney as well as his service motivation to the state.

A big topic at the meeting was the Ernie Lawhorne CCH campaign. We meet for the next 4 consecutive Mondays. Lets work with our captains and campaign chair to work our cards, add new donors, and meet our goals so we can complete the 2004 campaign. It's like a second-chance campaign to make those calls we may have been postponing.

~The Ernie Lawhorne Carolina Children's Home~ ~Fundraiser~

Well, 7 cards, 1 new, worth $750, were brought to the meeting.

It's the end of Week 6. You guys with unworked cards, which also include me, need to get prepared for what you will tell your Captain when he calls. I have a suggestion:

"My cards? I'm glad you asked! I have heard oratory reminiscent of Daniel Webster at our meetings and I have read insightful messages in the Bulletin. I have been inspired and I have re-committed myself to not only work these cards, but find a new card or two. I have decided that dreading it is worse than doing it. Thanks for the call, I'll see you at the next meeting and I'll bring in some cards. I feel better already."

Just a suggestion.

Guest Speaker

Ken Wingate~ State Senate candidate, gave not only an excellent presentation, but also a view of how a public official should act, and react to government waste. Ken chaired Gov. Sanford's MAP committee, a private sector group of volunteers who analyzed state government operations and proposed changes. The facts were appalling and the message was clear. Even though he looks like Eddie Haskell, we need a politician who not only cares, but also knows.
