President's Message

Fellow Sertomans:

We had an interesting talk from Dr. Barry Crane, a member of the Aiken Sertoma Club, who has received many awards for his service to the people of Russia. As you heard, his job as a nuclear engineer takes him all over the globe and most recently to Russia to aid the Russian people in securing their nuclear technology.

Next week, we have planned Scott Green of GlaxoSmithKline, who will talk about drugs (the legal kind) and why they are so expensive. The week after Thanksgiving, we'll have Lady Gamecocks Basketball Coach Susan Walvius, who will talk about her team's slow but sure rise to national power status. Then, we'll have Dr. Donen Davis, a Columbia plastic surgeon who will discuss some of the procedures that he performs. Those upcoming programs should be very exciting, and thanks again to Todd Lewis who continues to do an excellent job with programs this year.

Please keep in mind that our annual Christmas Party is Monday, December 13th, at 6:30pm at the Chestnut Hills Plantation Clubhouse. I'm sure those of you that attended last year's party will be happy to know that this is the same location as last year's Christmas event. Please sign up with Reggie if you plan to attend. I will see you this coming Monday for lunch! Have a great week!

Sertoma Christmas Party~ December 13

Chestnut Hills Plantation Clubhouse

It's not too early, (maybe it is), to mention our annual party and urge every member to make plans now to attend. Let us know if you are bringing kids so we can let Santa know. Ho Ho.

Business Meeting

Reggie Belcher gave the Invocation & Pledge of Allegiance.

Thanksgiving & Christmas~Turkeys & Hams: Bill Reamer, Columbia Sertoma Club's 2004 Service To Mankind recipient continues this annual tradition and needs our help. His Optimist Club has all the equipment & know-how, but just needs manpower November 22 thru 25 and December 15 thru 24. Come to the Scottish Rite Temple adjacent to Greenlawn Cemetery any time from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. Join this delicious tradition that raises a ton for charity. Tickets for sale from Chris Weston for $30.

Coaches Corner:

Coach Belcher lamented that Lou is consistent, 0&6, against Florida and Tennessee. Clemson always seems to play harder than USC during this upcoming rivalry. Lou said in 38 years, he wants this win more than any other.

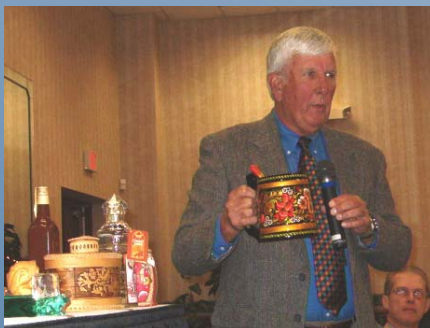

Coach Sutker said about Duke, "It was pathetic, it took Duke 20 minutes to tear down the goalposts." Regarding the upcoming game, "USC can do two things, take it and like it." As is our tradition, the winning coach eats steak next meeting, the loser eats beans, & gives $25 to CCH.

Membership Dinner: Dan Felker is heading up another opportunity for members to bring guests to hear about Sertoma and hopefully join. The date has been set for Monday, January 31.

Guest Speaker, Barry Crane, Aiken Sertoman showed how he hit flea markets and drank his way through Russia.
