PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

As I stood at the podium and presided at this week's meeting, one thing became quickly apparent – the number of guests attending our meetings is quickly increasing. By my count five visitors experienced the greatest lunchtime show in Columbia, and I think this is simply fantastic.

When someone attends our meetings for the first or fifth time, it provides us a unique opportunity to make a lasting impression on that person that can result in all kinds of good things. I'd like to thank each member responsible for this valuable opportunity and I'd like to challenge everyone to bring a guest in the upcoming weeks. Greg, John, Joe, Bill and James – great job and I say kudos to you for exposing your friends and colleagues to our great club and the members that comprise it.

Special thanks is also in order for Jack Godbold for the excellent speaker this week. Jack always does a splendid job with programs, but I have to say Mike Lynch with SLED was excellent. Before his presentation, I had no idea the job "forensic artist" even existed, much less what it entailed. Needless to say, I'll never look at a police sketch quite the same again.

Your Board has decided to make the week of September 11th Sertoma Week at the American Red Cross, so please keep this in mind as you schedule your future blood donations. Also, take a look at the USC football schedule and think about when you might want to park cars for a few hours before a game. We'll begin passing sign-up sheets at the next meeting.

Until we meet again August 21, flash someone an enthusiastic smile and invite them to a Sertoma meeting. You'll be doing them a favor.

Have a great two weeks!!

BUSINESS MEETING

Heather Fairchild gave the Invocation & Pledge of Allegiance.

Cool Fundraising Idea! A Tailgate Party for the USC/Florida Away Game ~ September 9.

The Game is on ESPN, so Come join us at The University House, across from Williams Brice Stadium, 7:45 pm. Just think.....

Not as much traffic, and a lot more of your friends. You'll see more of the game than if you drove down to Florida, but maybe most importantly, we will design this so we raise money for worthy causes. We can also use this in membership recruitment. Stay tuned to the radio and the Bulletin for more details.

We are Again Selling Parking, in two lots, for USC Home Games. The sign-up sheets are being passed at meetings.

Coaches Corner cranks back up August 28. This year's captains are Neal Sutker (Clemson) and Chris Burnette (USC).

Congratulations to Reggie Belcher, upon Board appointment as Club Treasurer.

Club Leadership Conference will be held August 21. At this meeting, the president outlines areas of responsibility for all officers and committee chairmen. How else are you going to have input and knowledge of what you are supposed to do? Sertoma means Service— make this productive.

Farewell Farm Tapes. While most of us were parking cars, or selling snow cones, hot dogs and Cokes at these fundraisers, Eddie Williams was riding around in a golf cart with good looking women, videotaping the events. It was a tough job, but we ended up with a couple of hours, edited down to 20 concise minutes of Farewell Funnies. This will be hosted August 28, by Eddie Williams and Anne Wilson.
