From The President

Congratulations to our new members Allan Buck and David Forbes. Be sure to give them a warm Sertoma welcome.

Thank you
Clemson Coach
Neal Sutker and Carolina Coach Joby Castine for keeping us informed and entertained

about the trials
and misfortunes
of the Tigers
(They Lost Again

Thursday~ The End) and the Gamecocks. John Adams is working hard to recruit speakers, if you have contacts or ideas, please let him know.

Volunteers are needed for Football parking. Our volunteers seem to be the same individuals every Saturday, please step up to the plate, normally we ask that you report 4 hours before game time. The lots are typically filled within 2.5 hours.

For the LSU game, we'll need our volunteers to arrive 6 hours earlier due to the State Fair being open.

This club project contributes approximately $22,000 last year of the money we grant to local charities.

The Wade Hampton Fall district conference was held this past Saturday at Woodside Plantation in Aiken. Chris Burnette, Joby Castine, Dee Moise, Karen McGrady, International Director Chris Weston and of course our own District Governor, Dan Felker attended.

Our second attempt at a membership night at the Loose Cockaboose complete with a live reggae band was cancelled due to the impending rain. Watch for details of a future date.

The Richland Sertoma Club is sponsoring a golf tournament at Fort Jackson on October 31. Please contact Chris Burnette for details.

Club sponsorships are considered three times per year. Our last sponsorship meeting of the year will take place at our board meeting on October 20. Sponsorships should be submitted to sponsorship chairman Joe Hodson.

Meeting Highlights

New Members Inducted!

David Forbes and Alan Buck simultaneously became our newest members.

President Burnette almost has the tricky Induction Speech memorized and promises to have it Down-Pat next time.
